Dear John,
Its over...

Sure Mr Howard looks as bland as your high school economics teacher, but this guy really isn't nice — so its time to stop kidding ourselves that politics doesn't matter.

DearJohn.org is a website designed to encourage young people to dump John by voting liberal last at the election. Everything on the site is copyright free...so download stickers and transfers, customise your our own t-shirts and forward Dear John letters — soon everyone will be joining in and he'll know its over!
